SPRINGFIELD, MO – Butler, Rosenbury & Partners, Inc. (BR&P) has been selected to be one of the 15 design firms on this year's Hilton Architect's Roundtable Program. This distinguished honor is by invitation only and is only extended to a few firms nationwide. This is the third time BR&P has been invited to be a part of the Roundtable.

David Hess, AIA and Gerri Kielhofner, AIA will be representing BR&P at the three day event held in January at the Kohler Company campus in Wisconsin. The group will learn more about the Hilton Hotels Corporation, and will gain key insights and information into Hilton Building Standards.

BR&P's Hospitality Studio has worked on 23 projects nationwide in the Hilton Family of Brands hotels including 16 Embassy Suites, four Hampton Inn and Hampton Inn & Suites, two Homewood Suites, and one Hilton Garden Inn.

BR&P has offices in Springfield, Mo. and Phoenix, Ariz. specializing in architecture, structural engineering, interior design, and landscape architecture with a staff of more than 50 design and administrative professionals. The company is currently celebrating its 30th year in business.
