

Contact:
Mary M. Guccione, Business Development Manager
319 N. Main St.
Springfield, Mo. 65804

March 6, 2008

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Springfield Architectural Firm Is Honored With Four ADDY Awards

Butler, Rosenbury & Partners is pleased to announce recent honors at the 29th Annual ADDY Awards presented by the Springfield Ad Club, the local chapter of the American Advertising Federation. Keith Belt, Graphic Designer and Sarah Campbell, Contributor/Copy Editor were awarded four ADDYs. The ADDY® Awards are the world's largest advertising competition representing the true spirit of creative excellence by recognizing the best of all forms of advertising. The ADDY® Awards is a local to national competition and is the only creative awards program administered by the advertising industry for the industry.

All four awards were silver and were given for the following entries:

- D.R.E.A.M. Initiative Direct Mailing Campaign. Sarah Campbell contributor/copy editor.
- Special Invitation to Hog Heaven. Sarah Campbell contributor/copy editor.
- Bike Town Springfield Announcement for Ozark Greenways.
- Retail FUNdamentals Workshop logo.

Belt accepted the awards at the ADDY Awards ceremony held at the Oasis Convention Center in Springfield.

Butler, Rosenbury and Partners is an architectural and engineering design firm celebrating its 30th anniversary. Located in Springfield, Missouri, the company has more than 89 employees and recently opened offices in Phoenix, Arizona and Dongguan, China.

###