Gerri Kielhofner, AIA, Vice President and Architect at Butler, Rosenbury & Partners (BR&P) will be leading a seminar titled “Running the Gamut of Facility Maintenance” at the 2008 Commercial Construction Show on Thursday, June 5.

Presenting with Kielhofner are Cameron Collins, PE of Malone Finkle Eckhardt & Collins, Marvin Norton of The Killian Group and Jose Benavides of John Q. Hammons Management Company. The group has a combined 81 years of experience in the hospitality industry.

The seminar will address hospitality industry issues such as how building materials directly affect building maintenance, how isolation and access to building systems directly affect building maintenance, how proper installation of building materials and systems directly affect building maintenance, and how to properly maintain your facility.

Butler, Rosenbury & Partners is an architectural and engineering design firm located in Springfield, Missouri. The company has more than 70 employees and is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year.
