SPRINGFIELD, MO - Butler, Rosenbury & Partners (BR&P) is excited to announce that three more of its professionals have received LEED Accreditation – Stephanie Shadwick, Lindsay Barcomb and Adam Kreher.

Stephanie Shadwick and Lindsay Barcomb are both intern architects in BR&P's Hospitality Studio. Both graduated from Drury University with a Bachelor of Architecture and a Bachelor of Art in Art History degrees. Shadwick has been with BR&P for five years; Barcomb has been with BR&P for more than two years, including time spent at BR&P as a student intern.

Adam Kreher is an intern architect in BR&P's Retail/Entertainment Studio. He graduated from Drury University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Architecture.

LEED Professional Accreditation distinguishes building professionals with the knowledge and skills to successfully steward the integrated design and LEED certification process. LEED Accredited Professionals have demonstrated a thorough understanding of green building practices and principles and familiarity with LEED requirements, resources and processes.

BR&P currently employs eight, full-time LEED Accredited Professionals.

BR&P has offices in Springfield, Mo. and Phoenix, Ariz. specializing in architecture, structural engineering, interior design, and landscape architecture with a staff of more than 40 design and administrative professionals. The company is currently celebrating its 30th year in business.
