Butler, Rosenbury & Partners recently celebrated the opening of the 13th Bass Pro Shop store for which the company has been the Architect of Record. Nearly 7,000 people attended the grand opening of the new Bass Pro Shop in Bolingbrook, Illinois including professional fisherman Roland Martin, Miss Illinois and Miss Teen Illinois. It is located at The Promenade – a Forest City Development.

The store covers 143,000 square feet with a 7,500 square foot restaurant. It is characteristic of other Bass Pro locations with signature features such as education, conservation, museum and entertainment. The store contains an aquarium with native fish, an archery range, laser arcade and the entire facility stays true to Bass Pro with its rustic and lodge-like interior.

BR&P is comprised of over 75 design professionals and support staff and provides architecture, structural engineering, interior design and landscape architecture design services. The firm has expertise in the design of retail, hospitality, office buildings, healthcare and civic facilities.

Butler, Rosenbury & Partners was recently ranked 30th in Hotel & Motel Management magazine's list of "Top Design Firms of 2006", and the 36th hospitality design firm in the nation by Hotel Design Magazine.

Recent accomplishments include design of the Bass Pro Shops in Las Vegas, Nevada which was named the Store of the Year by NASFM (National Association of Store Fixture Manufacturers). And, design of the St. Charles, Missouri Embassy Suites which was recently awarded two top honors in hospitality: The Connie Award and the Total Quality Award, making it the number one Embassy Suites property in the world.

To this date BR&P is licensed in over 30 states, and has offices in Glendale, Arizona, Springfield, Missouri and Dongguan, China. The success of the firm is strongly rooted in the firm's fundamental beliefs.
